‘Caring and Achieving Together’

Roald Dahl Day 13th September 2016

Dear Parents/Carers

As I am sure many of you are aware, this year is the 100th anniversary since the birth of Roald Dahl. He is one of the most significant children's authors of our time and his books are enjoyed both adults and children around the world.

At Catfield we will be joining in the celebrations on Roald Dahl day on the 13th September.

The children are invited to come into school dressed as a Roald Dahl character (there are lots of simple costume ideas on line if you get stuck!).

We will begin our day with a special whole school assembly and then all the children will complete a range of Roald Dahl themed activities as part of a carousel. We will then finish our day by viewing a live Roald Dahl broadcast which will be viewed by thousands of school children across the UK.

We would also love to raise some money for 'Roald Dahl's Marvellous Children's Charity' so will have a collection bucket out on the day. Alongside this, we will have a giant peach drawn out on the playground which we invite everyone to fill with their spare change.

We would love parents/carers to come and join us in our celebrations. You are welcome to drop in at any point of the day but please come via the front entrance so we can get you signed in.

Watch the blogs on our website for photos of the day!

Sincerely

Natalie Butcher
